Education/ Experience:	Successful candidates will have a minimum of six (6) years of progressively responsible experience in transportation project/program planning and funding; or transit and mobility programs; one (1) year supervisory experience. Demonstrated experience working with governmental agencies on transportation programs, projects, funding and project delivery is highly desirable. A Bachelor's degree in regional, urban or transportation planning, community development, public policy or a related field from an accredited college or university is also required.

Benefits:	StanCOG offers an exceptional benefit package including retirement benefits, generous health benefits, a flexible schedule and more!
About StanCOG:	StanCOG is the federally-designated Metropolitan Planning Organization (MPO), state-designated Regional Transportation Planning Agency (RTPA), and Local Transportation Authority (LTA) for the Stanislaus region of Northern California. StanCOG provides a forum that brings mayors, city council members and county supervisors together to work on regional transportation issues in a setting that promotes the involvement of the public in the planning and project delivery process. With the passage of Measure L transportation sales tax measure on the ballot in November 2016, StanCOG became a 'self-help county' and administers an approximately $960 million program of projects for transportation needs within Stanislaus County for the 25-year period from 2017-2042.
